

LOCAL CITY GOVERNMENT ELECTED OFFICIALS

Mayor – Ronald O. Loveridge

Ronald O. Loveridge has served as Riverside's Mayor since 1994. Prior to his term as mayor, he was elected to the city council and served from 1979 to 1994. He is currently the Second Vice President for the statewide League of California Cities.

As Mayor of Riverside he has chaired and serves on many boards, including: the Agua Mansa Enterprise Zone Board, the League of California Cities, the March Joint Powers Authority, the South Coast Air Quality Management District Board, the Southern California Association of Governments and the Western Riverside Council of governments. Along with his devotion to the citizens of Riverside, Ron is committed to the young people in this community. He has his Masters Degree and Ph.D. in political science from Stanford University and has taught as a professor at University of California, Riverside, courses including American Politics, Mass Media, Public Opinion, Local Leadership in California and introduces college students to government through field work/internship projects.

“As Mayor of the City of Riverside it is my job to interpret the policies, programs, and needs of the City Government to the people as well as inform the people of any major change in policy or program. I also advise the City Council on all matters of policy and public relations. My policy platform for my final term as Mayor has three overriding objectives, which I call the Three Directions...

- First is an emphasis on Economic Development, with a focus on the new economy and high-paying jobs. It is my goal to make Riverside the best place to do business in the Inland Empire.
- Second is an emphasis on Quality of Life, in order to make Riverside increasingly a community of choice.
- And the third is an emphasis on an Inclusive Community. As a community without an ethnic majority, it is my goal to embrace inclusiveness.

...Thank you for your interest in the City of Riverside!”
